About the Show

Twenty years after the release of the Coen brothers' cult classic The Big Lebowski, Land Gallery presents Lebowskiland, a group show comprising more than 50 artists from around the world paying tribute to The Dude, bowling and a rug that really tied the room together.

Curated by illustrator Michael Buchino, works by Aaron Draplin, Mary Kate McDevitt, Jean Jullien, Jeff Bridges, Elizabeth Haidle, Ryan Sprague, Pendleton Woolen Mills and more will be featured June 28–July 22.

Opening reception with artists on Thursday, June 28 at 6 pm.

Attendees are encouraged (but not required) to dress as their favorite Lebowski characters. White Russians will be served with vodka generously provided by New Deal Distillery. Gallery will remain open daily through July 22.

Film screening at Hollywood Theatre on Monday, June 25 at 7 pm.
